Summer Reading Movie: Hoot

Join us on Wednesday, June 12th at 12:00pm at the Tillamook Main Library for the family friendly movie, Hoot! Seating will be on the floor. Bring your favorite pillow and settle in! Snacks provided.

Hoot summary - Roy Eberhardt has moved with his family so often he literally has lost count of the number of times he has had to changed schools. Roy ought to be used to being the new kid at school by now, but making the switch from Montana to Florida proves to be a major challenge. Though Roy quickly becomes the target of school bully, he is befriended by Beatrice Leep, a spunky girl, and her brother Mullet. Beatrice and Mullet share a big secret with Roy: they have a hidden hideaway where they look after a flock of endangered owls. That is of little concern to Chuck Muckle, a top executive from the Mother Paula's All-American Pancake House chain, who is planning to build a new restaurant in the hollow where the owls nest. The three kids are determined to find a way to save the owls.

Hoot is rated PG; for mild bullying and brief language.
