An Afternoon of Poetry with Matthew Dickman

Make sure to visit us at the Tillamook Main Library on Saturday, June 22nd at 4:00pm for a live poetry reading by Matthew Dickman!

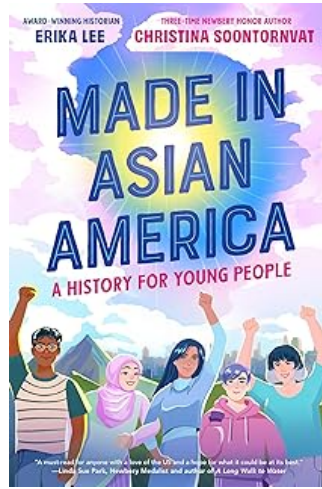

Biography of Matthew Dickman - from poetryfoundation.org

"Poet Matthew Dickman grew up in Lents, a working-class area of Portland, Oregon. He earned a BA at the University of Oregon and an MFA at the University of Texas-Austin's Michener Center. He is the author of the poetry collections Husbandry (2022), Wonderland (2018), Mayakovsky's Revolver (2014), 50 American Poems (cowritten with Michael Dickman, 2012), and All American Poem (2008).

Unabashed in their celebration and in their grief, Dickman's expansive, long-lined lyric poems are layered with references to popular culture, personal history, and class-based struggle. In a 2010 interview with Brian Brodeur for the blog How a Poem Happens, Dickman stated, "I do believe in inspiration. Inspiration and meaning-making. Often they are bed partners." Introducing a selection of Dickman's poetry in the Boston Review in 2007, poet Major Jackson observed, "He knows something about the sorrow of this world, its call for a kind of toughness of spirit and a sensitivity that must go underground if one is to survive and, more importantly here, the violence that such poverty [re-creates] and echoes in the lives of the dispossessed. His authority is that of the native, unwavering and resolute."

Dickman's debut collection, All American Poem (2008), was chosen by Tony Hoagland for the American Poetry Review's Honickman First Book Prize and also won the 2009 Oregon Book Award for Poetry. He has received the Kate Tufts Discovery Award, the American Academy of Arts and Science's May Sarton Poetry Prize, as well as residencies and fellowships from the Provincetown Fine Arts Work Center, the Vermont Studio Center, Literary Arts of Oregon, and the Lannan Foundation. He lives in Portland, Oregon."

New Arrivals in Teens

Made in Asian America

Erika Lee and Christina Soontornvat

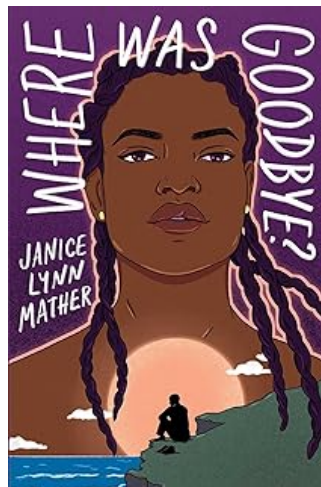

This book is a stirring account of the ordinary people and extraordinary acts that made Asian America and the young people who are remaking America today.

Gargoyles: Here in Manhattan

Greg Weisman

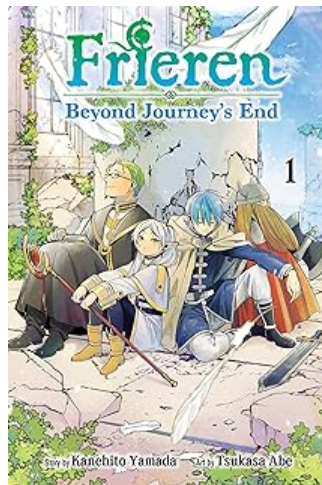

The first collection of Gargoyles creator Greg Weisman's all-new tales set in the world of his beloved animated show is finally here! Collecting issues #1-6 of the acclaimed series written by Weisman and illustrated by George Kambadais, Gargoyles : Here in Manhattan reintroduces the Manhattan Clan, a Gargoyles family newly dedicated to their mission of defending modern-day New York. But when a member of Elisa Maza's family is abducted, the mission becomes very personal. And that's before the dangerous Dino Dracon is released from prison, determined to take over the New York Underworld, and equally determined not to let anyone - human or Gargoyle - stand in his way!

Where was goodbye

Janice Lynn Mather

As she starts her senior year, six weeks after her brother Julian's suicide, Karmen struggles with strained family relationships, a distant best friend, and the search for understanding, but new friendships and a budding romance help her on her journey of healing and rediscovery.

Frieren: Beyond Journey's End

Kanehito Yamada

The adventure is over but life goes on for an elf mage just beginning to learn what living is all about. Elf mage Frieren and her courageous fellow adventurers have defeated the Demon King and brought peace to the land. But Frieren will long outlive the rest of her former party. How will she come to understand what life means to the people around her? Decades after their victory, the funeral of one her friends confronts Frieren with her own near-immortality. Frieren sets out to fulfill the last wishes of her comrades and finds herself beginning a new adventure.
